> Editorially we aim to trest 1 13 p. m. all men and all topics with the candor they deserve, deal ing with them fairly, justly and strictly on their merits.

We shall strive to build up adecent respectable journalism as contra-distinguished from erty to sell rent or trade to call at the Graphic Real Estate Advertising Agency. Parties de-siring help of any kind, or persons desiring style too common in many papers, believing that a journal which carefully expunges these defects from its pages will ultimately command not only the respect and confidence but also the patronage of the community in which it is published. -This does not imply that good humored satire, and wit, and ridicule, may not be used at the proper time. For these are often powerful weapons in the cause of truth, and when properly and moderately used give zest to more serious argu-

> The GRAPHIC desires to be especially a family paper, one which will find a welcome in every home, and which parents can with confidence place in the hands of their children knowing that it will prove a valuable educational and moral aid in their training.
